Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazerre. The weather is cool enough occasionally for people from the rural districts when in "town," to take something warming akin to cold tea, medicated from the root-Respir frumentl, z. i. Cool weather also furnishes a sanitary excuse for sausages for breakfast. Some may rail against such time-honored savory article of food. It is generally palatable in the winter time, and home made sausage may be recorded as the most di-gestible of food. The dyspetics who have a rough time digesting their morning repast need not fear sausage as being too greasy; we recommend a link or two of the known make up in cases of forenoon dyspepsia. No flowers for this specific.

The Ladies' Mile Society of this precinct

had a very pleasant social at the residence of J. T. Haring, Tuesday evening. Valentines were an amusing indulgence, and reading and music chimed in. The ladies of the society are not to be thwarted by robbers of church carpeting, and will replace the stolen articles by a new carpet. The next meeting of the society is to be at the reci dence of D. F. Abrams on the 29th lost a pie-ous gayety.

The community is very much pleased with the fact that the Rev. Mr. Wickline, who has so acceptably ministered to the good wants of the people of this Falis Church circuit for the past two years is to continue his labors with us for a third year.

Mr. Harvey Abrams, of Camillus, N. Y. has been visiting his brother, D. F. Abrams, for some time past. He thinks the wintry weather in Virginia though not as daisy like as could be desired, preferable to the snow embargoes recently prevalent in the region of his native heath. The first glass cups came from Venice during the sixteenth century, and from that time on society began to lose many of its primitive ways, and become, in a sense, more refined. Henry VIII was born with luxurious tastes; he had his banquet chairs supplied with velvet cushions, and about this time the parlor or "talking room," as it was called, was introduced; and here it was that the dames took refuge when the dinner had advanced beyond prudent limits, as it invariably did before the finish. The cook that presided over the kitchen in those days was not the counterpart of our nineteenth century Bridget, but he was an artist, and generally a man of quality. The ladies of the household, even those of noble birth, attended to many domestic duties, making the bread, preserving the fruits; while to understand the proper use of starch was considered a great accomplish-
